

I have been listening to K-Love in my community since it first went on line. I listen to it all day whenever I am near a radio. If K-Love went of the air because it was displaced by a LPFM, I would be very disappointed as well as others in the community who have come to depend on K-Love for a source of comfort and inspiration.